D. Qualification Pathway

Number of Quota Places	Qualification Event
D.1, D.2, D.3: Men: 80 Women: 80	D.1 The NOCs ranked in the Marc Hodler Trophy Cross-Country Skiing standings at the FIS Junior Nordic World Ski Championships 2023 and the Host Country are entitled to a quota of three (3) male and three (3) female athletes. D.2 Any remaining quota places will be distributed with a maximum of one (1) male and/or one (1) female athlete per NOC amongst the NOCs not yet qualified according to D.1. The quota allocation for these places will be determined according to their ranking on the men and women YOG quota allocation lists as of 18 December 2023. The allocation will be made by assigning one (1) quota place per NOC from the top of the YOG quota allocations lists until the maximum quota of 80 men and 80 women is reached. D.2.1 The YOG quota allocation lists, published on 18 December 2023 on the FIS website, www.fis-ski.com, are established by adding Distance and Sprint rankings on the YOG FIS points' lists containing only YOG age group athletes using the table that can be found here during the qualification period from 1 July 2022 to 17 December 2023. FIS will publish the latest YOG quota allocation and YOG FIS points list for information on a regular basis. D.2.2 If there is a tie for the final allocated quota place(s) on either the men or women YOG quota allocation lists, the athlete with the higher YOG FIS rank in either the YOG FIS Distance points list or YOG FIS Sprint points list will be ranked ahead. If there is still a tie, the athlete with the 2nd best rank on the other event (Distance or Sprint) will be ranked ahead. If there is still a tie, the athlete with the best rank in a single competition during the qualification period will be ranked ahead. If a tie

	D.3 If there are remaining quota places, one (1) quota place will be allocated to the NOCs not yet qualified according to D.1 according to their second (2 nd) best ranked athlete on the men and women YOG quota allocation lists until all quota places are filled.
	D.4 In the event of cancellation of the FIS Junior Nordic World Ski Championships 2023 in Cross-Country, the quota calculation in D.1 will be carried out by allocating three (3) male and three (3) female athletes to the top 10 NOCs in the YOG quota allocation lists. If the Host Country is not within the top 10 NOCs, they will also be allocated a quota of three (3) male and three (3) female athletes.

HOST COUNTRY PLACES

The Host Country is allocated a quota of three (3) men and three (3) women, as detailed in D.1. The selection of athletes is at the discretion of the Host NOC while respecting the eligibility criteria as detailed in C. Athlete Eligibility.

E. Confirmation Process for Quota Places

FIS shall inform the NOCs that earn quota places via the FIS Website on 18 December 2023. The NOCs will then have one (1) day to confirm via the FIS online system if they wish to use these quota places, as detailed in G. Qualification Timeline. A provisional quota allocation list will be available for the NOCs to review a few weeks before the deadline.

The number of quota places an NOC is able to confirm at any point of time cannot be higher than the number of eligible athletes on the YOG FIS points list or the maximum quota places.

F. Reallocation of Unused Quota Places

REALLOCATION OF UNUSED QUALIFICATION PLACES

If an allocated quota place is not confirmed by the NOC by the confirmation of the quota place deadline or is declined by the NOC, the quota place will be reallocated by FIS based on the criteria described in D.2 followed by D.3.

REALLOCATION OF UNUSED HOST COUNTRY PLACE

If the Host Country declines any of its quota places, then the quota places will be reallocated according to the “Reallocation of Unused Qualification Places” section.
